

A funny, festive short story from bestseller Fiona Gibson. Just the thing to curl up with on a cold winter night. Christmas in the country. What could be better? All you need is one country house, one gorgeous boyfriend and a liberal dusting of snow. Right? That's what Anna thinks and she can't wait for the festivities to start. But then she meets her gorgeous boyfriend's awful parents. And their drunk friends. And she starts to hear all about a certain ex-wife. Suddenly this doesn't look like a very merry Christmas after all! Christmas doesn't always go to plan, and Fiona tells it like it is. The perfect festive read for fans of Outnumbered and Fern Britton.
