

The story of Ruth and Boaz is an account that every Christian is familiar with and is taught to assist single women who are waiting to be married. This is a sad story, a riveting story, and a love story, told in four chapters in the book of Ruth. In my teachings to single women I have often used this story to explain how to be found by a man of God, how to submit to womanly wisdom, and how to be where you're supposed to be in order to be discovered by your "Boaz". As you read The Revelation of Ruth, the words will shine a light on how awesome the experience of being single in God is. It will dismiss the many lies the enemy has whispered in your ear that you are worthless, unloved, unproductive or unattractive. It will dispel the enemy's lies that you will never get married and cause you to get prepared to be revealed to your future husband!
